

Art work development guidelines

It is important to follow this guidance to preserve the branding direction and integrity of the distribution.

The following guidelines should be considered when undertaking your artwork project.

- Wallpapers should express three attributes which defines the distribution Open, Enterprise, Systems.
- Optimised the mix of colours Black Grey Red White for the distribution which is optimised for certain cultures and visually impaired users.
- Link if possible to the main website link.
- You may wish to assign license or artist name discretely.
- Bear in mind that wallpapers need to look great on both large and small screen devices.
- Please read the terms and conditions set out under opensource licensing criteria particularly as to copyright.
